Bombay Castel, March 1944.

Defence of India Rules.

No. 34-III. In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 81 of the Defence of India Rules, the Government of Bombay is pleased to amend the Bombay Hay Trade Licensing Order, 1944, as follows, namely :-

(1) After clause 5 of the said Order, the following clau shall be inserted, namely :-

"5A) If a license granted under this Order is defaced, lost or destroyed, the Licensing Authority may, after making such inquiry as it deems necessary, issue a duplicate license on payment of a fee of Rs.1/-

2) After clause 9 of the said Order, the following new clause shall be inserted, namely:-

"10. If any person contravences the provisions of this Order, any Court trying such contravention may direct that any stocks of hay in respect of which the Court is satisfied that the Order has been contravened, shall be forfeited to His Majesty."

By order of the Governor of Bombay

Secretary to Government.

A revised draft Order is sent herewith. The definition of 'hay retailer' will overlap the definition of 'hay dealer' in clause 2(d). It is presumed that the distinction between the two is that a 'hay retailer' will not be holding stocks of hay whether on his own account or in partnership with any other person in the district of Thana or Surat. The definition of 'hay retailer' has therefore been revised accordingly. F.D. (Supply) should see whether this carries out their intention.

2. Amendment No.(2) in F.D.(Supply) draft at page 3 will create a deadlock in the business of hay retailers. It is therefore necessary to give some time after which the provisions contained in the amendment should begin to operate. F.D.(Supply) should therefore insert in draft amendment No.(2) a suitable date subsequent to the date of the making of the amendment.
